About the Artist

Collette Dinnigan is one of Australia's most iconic and internationally recognised designers, known for her refined sense of style, historical awareness, and timeless design language. Beginning in fashion, she became the first Australian to launch a ready-to-wear collection in Paris, with her work celebrated for its romance, detail, and craftsmanship.

Her passion for considered interiors evolved naturally from a lifelong dedication to beauty and form. With a keen eye for pattern, proportion, and narrative, Collette has brought her distinctive sensibility to homes, boutique hotels, and heritage restorations across Australia and abroad.

This exclusive collaboration with the Australian Museum of Design continues that vision, translating classic European motifs into contemporary design pieces. Her curated collection, rich in historical reference and quiet elegance, reflects a designer whose work continues to shape and inspire Australian design culture across disciplines.

About the Australian Museum of Design

The Australian Museum of Design (AMoD) is a cultural initiative founded to preserve, honour and revitalise Australia's design legacy, and to share it with the world. At its heart is a growing archive of more than 10,500 hand-drawn surface designs created by Australian artists across the 20th century, many of which have never been seen publicly until now.

AMoD exists to make this rich history accessible for study and for everyday use. From wallpaper and textiles to digital licensing and design exhibitions, we bring historical designs into modern homes, commercial interiors and creative projects. Each work is carefully digitised and restored, ensuring the artist's original intent and craft are respected while enabling new forms of expression and appreciation.

Our purpose goes beyond preservation. We are building a bridge between generations, where the imagination, skill and stories of Australian artists are no longer confined to archives, but reintroduced as part of a living, design-led conversation. Through collaborations, education and commercial partnerships, AMoD supports both the cultural and economic value of Australian design, championing creators past and present. Whether it's through curated wallpaper collections, designer features, or licensing support for brands and makers, AMoD is helping to define a new chapter in the story of Australian visual identity that honours the past while creating opportunities for the future.

‘Napoleon Fleur Diamont’

Antique Rose

Wallpaper from Collette Dinnigan

Napoleon Fleur Diamont Antique Rose is a structured and elegant wallpaper design curated by Collette Dinnigan for the Australian Museum of Design. Referencing the royal symbolism of the Fleur de Lys, the repeating diamond motif and soft vertical lines offer a refined take on classic French interiors with a romantic, modern sensibility.

Inspired by Napoleon’s use of emblems during the Empire period, the motif has been reinterpreted by Collette with gentle painterly edges and hand-drawn details. In this edition, the warm rose ground is layered with dusty gold flourishes, offering a feminine but grounded aesthetic that feels both timeless and contemporary.

What sets this colourway apart is its softness as the structure of the layout remains, but the palette brings a quiet elegance, ideal for bedrooms, salons, or spaces that lean toward warmth and vintage character. The hand-drawn touch ensures the design never feels flat, while its symmetry provides order and ease.

Perfect for heritage homes, boutique retail, romantic dining rooms or modern interiors looking for a nod to tradition, Napoleon Fleur Diamont – Antique Rose blends historical reference with a fresh, decorative sensibility. Exclusive to the Australian Museum of Design.
