About this design

A refined take on the classic paisley motif, drawing on French Empire-era influences. Hand-drawn flourishes and delicate botanical forms create movement balanced by the symmetry of the repeat.

Duck Egg sets charcoal paisley on a soft duck egg grey ground for a calm, contemporary tone.

About Collette Dinnigan

Collette Dinnigan is one of Australia's most iconic and internationally recognised designers, known for her refined sense of style, historical awareness and timeless design language. Beginning in fashion, she became the first Australian to launch a ready-to-wear collection in Paris, with her work celebrated for its romance, detail and craftsmanship.

Her passion for considered interiors evolved naturally from a lifelong dedication to beauty and form. With a keen eye for pattern, proportion and narrative, Collette has brought her distinctive sensibility to homes, boutique hotels and heritage restorations across Australia and abroad.

This exclusive collaboration with the Australian Museum of Design continues that vision, translating classic European motifs into contemporary design pieces.

About the Australian Museum of Design

The Australian Museum of Design preserves Australia's design legacy and shares it with the world. Its growing archive holds more than 10,500 hand-drawn surface designs by Australian artists of the 20th century, many of them never seen publicly until now. Each work is carefully digitised and restored so the artist's original intent remains intact.
